ぶんかのひ

ぶんかのひ is on December the third. It is one of many Japanese holidays. ぶんか means culture. ぶんかのひ is the day when The Constitution of Japan was promulgated. It contains the meaning of cherishing freedom and peace based on the spirit of the new constitution and cultural development. The constitution was enforced on May third and the day is a holiday as well.

7・5・3

When children become 3, 5, or 7 years old, parents will celebrate and go to a temple. That is because a long time ago, it was difficult for children to survive to the age of 7 years old, so they would celebrate their children's growth. The culture remains nowadays. If the child is a boy, they will celebrate when he becomes 3 and 5 years old. If the child is a girl, they will celebrate when she becomes 3 and 7 years old. It's usually carried out on the 15th of November. The children will usually wear a kimono.

お知らせ

- To Monday students: We'll do class on Tuesday the 29th instead of Boxing Day.
- I'll close classes from December 29th to January third. Classes on Tuesday the 27th of December will continue as usual.
